

NILS TARANGER - Creative Director/Producer

SUMMARY

Evaluated output from a generative image/video model for a confidential client and moved into product operations on the strength of that work. Spent the prior seven years building the video production and post pipeline for a developer-education platform, where a GenAI workflow improved video quality and reduced production time. Trained as a filmmaker first: MFA in Digital Entrepreneurial Cinema, short film premiered at Slamdance.

TOOLS

Post-Production: Premiere Pro, Final Cut, Photoshop, Descript, CapCut

Generative AI: Runway, Firefly, Midjourney, ElevenLabs, HeyGen, Suno

Operations: Notion, Slack, Flamelink, Keynote, Antigravity

EXPERIENCE

Nils Taranger, Remote — Creative Director

JAN 2013 – PRESENT

Generative Imagery Systems – Product Operations (Feb 2026 – Present)

▸ Evaluated a GenAI image/video model for a confidential client, and subsequently promoted to a product operations role.

Brand Films & Media Production (Jan 2013 – Jan 2026)

▸ Wrote, directed, and produced brand films and media projects from concept through delivery.

Vue Mastery, Remote — Creative Producer

JAN 2018 – SEP 2025

▸ Architected and deployed a GenAI post-production pipeline that cut production time ~20% and improved video quality.

▸ Built the visual system for a global developer-education platform: look, motion language, and delivery standards across 60+ video courses.

▸ Set up the production operation from scratch – workflows, approval gates, and review steps that let a small team keep pace with the release schedule.

▸ Worked directly with executives and instructors, translating production constraints into decisions they could act on.

▸ Directed instructors on camera: delivery, framing, and capture standards.

Various Productions, Orlando, FL — Production Assistant

2009 – 2012
